How to Secure Health.
It is a common error to suppose that health is a matter of course. It is a strengthening and purifying agent, and the BEST BLOOD PURIFIER ever discovered, curing Scrofula, Syphilis, Eczema, and all the skin diseases. COAST CLIPPINGS.

Henry Long was murdered by his father-in-law, Wm. Jones, in Middleport, Lake county, on Monday.

The largest nugget of silver yet found was dug up at Arizona. It weighed 43,200 ounces valued at $45,000.

The Good Templars of Red Bluff are about to build a hall at a cost of $9,500. Drinks must be scarce at Red Bluff.

Mrs. Mary E. Woodward, recently shot by Dr. E. N. Woodward, in San Francisco is now considered entirely out of danger.

It will cost $500,000 to drain the Yellow Jacket and adjoining mines, and it will take about six months time to accomplish it.

Judge J. McM. Shafter addressed 2,000 people at the Grangers' picnic, Hook Farm (Marysville), on May 9th, on the debris question.

The Grand Jury of San Bernardino have indicted the Chinese laundries as nuisances. The Chinese are excited and will make a legal contest.

The codling moth, the terrible pest of orchardists, has just begun to make its appearance, and millions of them will hatch out in the next five weeks.

Auburn wants a High School. One of its citizens has agreed to give four acres of ground, and it is proposed to raise $5,000 for the erection of a suitable building.

Immigrants are pouring into Oregon and Washington this Spring at an unprecedented rate. It is said that the average is about 600 to every steamer, or 4,000 a month.

One hundred and fifty thousand dollars in gold has been extracted from the placer mines near Takona, Alaska, last year, and the richest ground was not discovered until August.

Amador county promises to have an unusually abundant crop of fruit. The peach yield has been materially reduced by the ravages of small birds, which have picked on the blossoms.

Since November 10th last, the commencement of the shipping season, there have been shipped from the Santa Ana depot 14,327 boxes of oranges, 789 boxes of lemons and 459 boxes of lemons.

Prairie and wood fires have been raging in Southern Arizona and Western New Mexico recently. The territory burned is reported to cover forty miles square, and the damage done is immense. The origin of the fire is attributed to the Indians.

When all with one accord give spontaneous testimony in favor of St. Jacobs Oil, we know that its virtues are such as to merit it, and we are heartily glad of the generosity which does not hesitate to give a good article its due meed of praise. William Hadler, at the Marathon Hotel, Wausau, Wis., relates the following experience: Some time since I took a severe cold, which settled in my limbs, and gradually developed into a bad case of rheumatism. After suffering for some time, and using many different preparations (among which was a remedy prescribed by a physician)—all without receiving any benefit whatever, a friend advised me to try St. Jacobs Oil. I did so expecting to receive but little benefit, and was considerably surprised to feel somewhat easier after the first application. The use of only one-third of a bottle perfectly cured me. From a state of complete helplessness, I am now just as strong and healthy as ever, and gladly give all the praise to that wonderful remedy St. Jacobs Oil.

A Compliment.
The San Francisco Spirit of the Times pays the following compliment to the Congressman from California: "Hon. H. F. Page will not be a candidate for Governor before the Republican Convention, but will be a candidate for re-election to Congress from the Second Congressional District, which he has already represented for five successive terms. Page has won golden opinions from all classes. He has done admirably." And that is the reason why he will be continued at his post.

A Snake Bite.
A man in the employ of G. A. Cowles, in Cajon valley, was bitten by a rattlesnake on May 6th. The bite was in one of his fingers. He detached the team from the wagon, jumped on one of the pair of horses and rode with all speed to the house, where he procured a razor and cut the wounded finger off. We have not heard how the man is getting along. San Diego Union.

A Big Mistake.
An innocent couple at Wabash, Ind., went to the Postmaster to be married. The official was innocent, too; thought he had authority in the premises, and performed the ceremony all in good faith. The next day came enlightenment and confusion.

THE LEAGUE OF DELIVERANCE.

A branch of the "League of Deliverance" was formed in Virginia on Wednesday evening. The object of the League is protection against the encroachments of Chinese. So long as its members work within the limits of the law, it will receive the hearty support of those who believe that there is a peaceable remedy for the labor ills complained of; but as soon as the association ceases to conform to the proprieties of good citizenship, it will receive public condemnation. The following from the Virginia Chronicle of last evening will be endorsed by all law-abiding men: "It is absurd for the League of Deliverance to even contemplate resorting to any but peaceful means to get rid of the Chinese. The league must act within the law or it cannot look for the moral support or active assistance of law-abiding citizens. Any agitation having for its end the driving of the Chinese from the Pacific Coast that proposes to go beyond constitutional methods foredooms itself to failure. Every citizen has the constitutional right to buy or not, as he pleases, from any other citizen, or to give work or not to any man as he feels disposed. Citizens may lawfully band together for the purpose of refusing to give employment or patronage to any class in the community; but no one class has the legal right to drive out from among them by force of arms another class."

IRELAND'S TROUBLES.

Probably the greatest calamity that ever befel Ireland was the assassination of Cavendish and Burke. The consequences of that crime no one can foresee. The whole country is in a turmoil of social and political complications, from which it will scarcely emerge without the shedding of more blood. The conflicting elements cannot agree upon a common ground of reconciliation, either with themselves or the English Government. The leaders who were idolized by the masses a short time ago are now being cursed for supposed complicity with Gladstone. Yesterday a bill, containing more stringent provisions than has ever yet been enacted, was before Parliament, and instead of making concessions it seems as if the Government was about to grasp Ireland with a stronger hand than ever. An inflammatory proclamation by one of the Nationalist societies tacitly confesses that the late murders were planned and executed in accordance with a previously arranged programme, and appeals to the people not to give information that may lead to the arrest of the assassins. There is a fearful condition of things, and it will bring sorrow and suffering.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Tucson Star says of Uncle Sam's soldiers in Arizona Territory: A more timid, useless, incompetent set of military drones never cursed a civilized community, than that section of the United States army now quartered in Arizona.

Chief Justice Leonard, of the Supreme Court, has fixed the amount of the bond to be furnished by the Richmond Mining Company to the Albion Mining Company at $425,550.

Guadalupe Island.

Boston, May 12. The Western Land and Live Stock Co., in reply to a notification by the Mexican Consul-General, warning the people of the United States that the Mexican Government will not allow any corporation or individual to take possession of the Island of Guadalupe or take therefrom any of its products, submits the following statement:

That on the 23d of August, 1881, the Guadalupe Island Co. of California conveyed to the Western Land and Live Stock Co. by a deed now on file in the Boston office, Guadalupe, together with all structures and personal estate thereon. A full abstract of title to the island accompanies the deed and shows a perfect title from the original grantees and through several conveyances to the company. The matter will be speedily presented to the proper Mexican authorities.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.

IRELAND'S TROUBLES.

A Proclamation that Means More Blood—A Stringent Coercion Bill Before Parliament—Disastrous Results of the Dublin Tragedy.

DUBLIN, May 11.

The following proclamation has been issued by the Irish Republican Brotherhood:

GOD SAVE IRELAND.

DUBLIN, May 8.

To the Irish people and all lovers of liberty, and particularly our brothers of the Irish Republican Brotherhood and kindred organizations: As there seems to be a grave misunderstanding as to the aim and scope of the late executions at Dublin, we, the executive of the Irish Republican Brotherhood, hereby require all the aforesaid to withhold their information of this matter and to refrain from expressions of sympathy at public meetings which tend to humiliate Ireland and give aid and comfort to England.

As to the monster Burke, he had played upon the lives and liberties of his countrymen for many years, and had deserved his death a thousand times at our hands; and as to Lord Frederick Cavendish, the lineal descendant of Lord Brougham, who hanged the gallant and patriotic MacEgan, Bishop of Ross, at Carrigrohoid, because he would not betray his country, his very name stinks in the nostrils of the Irish people by the iniquities of Lord Hartington and the wholesale evictions of his father, the Duke of Devonshire, thereby driving thousands of the rightful owners of the soil to the poor-house, exile and death.

This organization has tolerated the vagaries of Parnell and his false treason-mongers until he has filled the bastions of our country with the victims of a useless Parliamentary agitation, which left 20,000 persons homeless last year and drove millions of the flower of our people to exile. He ceases to be harmless when a truce is made by which he and his friends are allowed to go free and eighty of Ireland's bravest sons have gone to languish in jail, or be assassinated by these men who by the so-called "outrages" opened the prison doors to Parnell and his friends.

If England really wished to deal fairly by Ireland why not issue a general amnesty, by which the prison doors would be opened and thousands of our exiled brethren, who now pine in foreign lands, could return in safety and honor. Instead of this Gladstone sent his emissaries to the Venetian head of the Catholic Church who, by lies and false pretense, deprived thousands of our poor, persecuted people of the comforts of religion by turning our altars into political platforms. Let us ask the people of Ireland are there no classes of people to be considered except the farmers? And of what avail will it be to Ireland if a selfish class is firmly rooted in the soil and becomes thoroughly loyal to England?

We ask our friends in America to ponder upon our desperate circumstance; to think of the brave and honorable people driven to despair by witnessing the white bosoms of our women torn open by the bayonets of English mercenaries, and our children of tender years shot down in the highways, while our walls of anguish in blood are heard. We are convinced that no due prosperity can exist in Ireland so long as England possesses her custom-houses there, allowing her manufactures to pass into Ireland duty free, thereby leaving our Irish mechanics unemployed, and the enormous war tribute demanded by England taking away the produce of the land, thereby forcing the Irish people to starve.

Now, furthermore, we call upon all our brethren in America, particularly the advanced Nationalists, to aid by every means within their power the men who have carried out this execution, and we hereby further declare they deserve well of their country.

By order of the Executive of the I. R. B.

TRACKING THE ASSASSINS.

DUBLIN, May 11.

The police have tracked the car with the four assassins to the center of this city, where they alighted. It has been ascertained that a cab accompanied the car to the scene of the murder. It is believed the cab contained four men, who went to point out the victims by signal and see the murder carried out, and these men subsequently entered the cab and drove back to the city. A farmer named Barrett, entering his house near Ballina, on returning from the fair, was shot and mortally wounded. Barrett was recently warned not to take a farm from which another person had been evicted.

A man about Belfast, and believed to be an American, has been arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the murders. There were blood stains on his clothes. Doherty has been released.

The postmaster of Navan, county Meath, shot dead a man named Connel in self-defense. The man had attempted to stop the mail cars.

Returns show that 462 agrarian outrages were committed in Ireland during April.

STRINGENT ENACTMENTS.

LONDON, May 11.

In the House of Commons, Harcourt, speaking of the proposed law for the repression of crime in Ireland, characterized the prevalence of crime there as a national disgrace. He said the time had arrived for the entire House to unite in taking steps to repress it. "The case we deplore to-day is not solitary. Crime is a plague-spot on Ireland, and I believe the Irish people desire its removal. It springs from secret societies, and must be extirpated. The mainspring of crime is the expectation of immunity, which is only too well founded. The Government has therefore concluded it is necessary in those places where the ordinary law is not observed to institute special tribunals, consisting of three Judges, to be appointed by the Lord Lieutenant, to try cases without a jury. The judgment of the Court must be unanimous. An appeal can be made to the Supreme Court; the judgment of the latter to be given by a majority of the Judges. The Supreme Court may diminish but cannot increase the severity of the sentence, and Parliament may be asked to provide special remuneration for special Judges. The bill also contains the following provisions: It gives power to search for secret apparatus for murder, such as arms, threatening letters, etc.; power to enter houses by day or night, under the warrant of the Lord Lieutenant; power to arrest persons prowling about at night and unable to give accounts of themselves, who are to be dealt with summarily; power to arrest strangers, as crimes are generally committed by foreign emissaries, the hospitality of England not being for such persons as O'Donovan Rossa, and power to remove foreigners considered dangerous to peace. The Government, therefore, intends to revise the Alien Act. Secret societies are to be dealt with summarily and membership thereof to constitute an offense. The Act also treats cases of aggravated assault in a summary manner. Power is given to repress intimidation and unlawful meetings, the latter to be dealt with summarily. Newspapers containing seditious and inflammatory matter are to be suppressed and the proprietors required to enter into recognizance not to repeat the offense. Justices can compel the attendance of witnesses about to abscond, and the Lord-Lieutenant can appoint an additional force when necessary, at the cost of the districts concerned. Compensation for murder and outrages will be exacted from the districts where they occur. Outrages will be dealt with summarily by the courts, which are to consist of two stipendiary magistrates. The Government reserves for consideration any further alterations of the jury system. The Home Secretary admitted the bill was extraordinary but necessary to meet extraordinary circumstances. The operation of the bill is to be limited to three years. The Government would do all in its power to prevent innocent persons suffering from the action of the bill, which placed almost unlimited authority in the hands of the Lord-Lieutenant. Harcourt concluded by stating that the measure will probably be followed by one dealing with arrears of rents.

DEBATE ON THE BILL.

Forster said, in his belief, force was no remedy, but it was necessary and was never more necessary than now.

John Bright said the bill was not aimed at political opponents, but against crime. He declared if he were an Irishman he would rather welcome a measure which would enable the people to pursue their daily duties in confidence under the protection afforded by law.

Parnell said he wished to join in an expression as to the temperate spirit shown by England the past few days, but he declared that that spirit was not displayed in the proposed bill, which he regarded as the most stringent ever proposed, and which, he said, would result in a hundredfold greater failure than what had gone before.

John Dillon characterized Forster's speech as bloodthirsty, but withdrew the words of demand of the Speaker. He afterward fiercely denounced the bill.

Harcourt, before the Repression bill was introduced, declared the Government had no intention of advising the Queen to grant a full pardon to Michael Davitt.

Dillon pointed out that the assassination on Saturday was the first that had tested Ireland. He warned the Government it might be renewed. He had not denounced the outrage. No man could effectually denounce it.

CRIME IN IRELAND.

Until he was able to go among his people and say that justice had been done to Ireland. The present bill, he declared, would bring disaster and destroy all faith in ultimate justice. To carry out the present policy would merely play into the hands of the assassins. The only way to deal with Ireland was to accept the aid of himself and friends. If the Government refused, they could only stand aside and watch the result as a conflict between nations—the one (England) with repression, the other (Ireland) with retaliation.

Goschen made a vigorous speech, in which he repudiated the notion that the kingdom was to look to members steeped in treason for the protection of life and property in Ireland.

The phrase "members steeped in treason" being challenged, Goschen substituted therefor, "members who have signed the no-rent manifesto."

The House, by a vote of 327 to 22, passed the Repression bill to its first reading. The minority was composed entirely of Home Rulers. The feeling in the lobby of the House is that the Repression bill fairly meets the grave issue by the crime of Saturday, but it is thought the certain stringency of its provisions will alienate the Irish vote. A meeting of the Irish party will be held to-day to consider the subject.

THEMOMIES.

DUBLIN, May 12.

The police and people are beginning to discredit the theory that Irish-Americans were imported to commit the murder of Cavendish and Burke. This leads to the further deduction that some Ribbon Lodge was implicated. There is great hopes that the reward offered will induce some member to become informer. One of the knives sold by an iron-monger in Dublin to some suspicious-looking persons Saturday was fully capable of inflicting the wounds sustained by the victims. The knife was purchased shortly before 1 o'clock p. m. A discharged soldier was arrested last evening on suspicion.

EASTERN.

The Chinese Will "Beat" the New Bill CHICAGO, May 12.

A Washington special says: Members of the diplomatic corps whose sources of information are of the best, said the opinion was entertained at the Chinese legation that the Chinese bill was in a measure impracticable, and would utterly fail to accomplish what its originators and supporters desired—to prevent the immigration of any new Chinese subjects to this country during the time fixed. It is not definitely known yet whether the Chinese Government will not regard the law as being in effect a violation of treaty stipulations, and either decline to be bound by its terms, or recognize it and take steps to abrogate the entire treaty.

In carrying into effect the new law it will be necessary to furnish Chinese now living in the United States, and who may desire to return to China, with papers entitling them again to return to the United States if they wish. These papers will be similar to the freedom papers carried by free negroes before slavery was abolished, to enable them to show that they were entitled to travel about without molestation. The Chinaman who leaves the United States for China will be entitled to receive such freedom papers from this Government to show that he is entitled to return again. It will be an easy matter for the Chinese Six Companies to get possession of these papers when held in China and send back at once other Chinamen to take their places.

The duty of identifying Chinamen who seek to return to our shores under these freedom papers will devolve upon officials at San Francisco and other ports where they may land. As the description of one Chinaman is the description of 99 out of every 100, it is not believed at the Chinese Legation that United States officials can detect any false imposition that may be attempted. The Chinese Government was anxious to aid the United States in executing any fair law upon the subject of immigration by having their Consuls act in conjunction with our officials; but the law just passed contains no provision for joint action. Consequently the Chinese Government will not feel it necessary to aid in deterring any Chinamen who may seek our shores under freedom papers.

Bennett's Arctic Scheme.

CHICAGO, May 12.

It is reported that Bennett had already under consideration plans for another Arctic expedition which he was cogitating when the news came of finding De Long's party dead. In obedience to public sentiment, Bennett will abandon the intention, unless there should appear reasonable grounds for search for the remains of Lieutenant Chipp's party. The contemplated expedition was to be on a much grander scale than that of the Jeannette, and was to be under the combined direction of army and navy officers. Navy officers were to be supreme on board vessel, while army officers were to head a sledge expedition in conjunction with others.

Guiteau's Case.

WASHINGTON, May 12.

Davidge resumed his argument in the Guiteau case—it would be monstrous to assert that the head of the Nation could be murdered here at the very seat of Government, and because he happened to die elsewhere, the sovereignty of this great nation should be made powerless. It is now the duty of this Court to declare, in plain and unmistakable terms, the meaning of the statutes of the United States, and vindicate the sovereignty of this nation reposed in their keeping.

Mrs. Mason's Appeal to the President.

WASHINGTON, May 11.

The wife of Sargeant Mason made a strong appeal to President Arthur for her husband's pardon. The President had great sympathy with her, and the petition for the pardon of the husband would be laid before the Cabinet. Mrs. Mason was very much affected by the President's words.

Russian Atrocity.

NEW YORK, May 11.

The World says J. and W. Selligman & Co. have been advised by cable that General Ignatieff intended presenting to the Czar a bill to confiscate all the property of the Jews in Russia. The sender of the telegram urges the American Government to be urged to use its good offices to prevent the signing of the decree.

THE RENO GAZETTE

For 1882 will be a better paper than it has ever been before. It now gets all the latest press dispatches, and is thus placed many hours ahead of any other paper. It has always been the policy of the proprietor to make the GAZETTE a first-class local paper, with full accounts of everything that occurs in Reno or Washoe county, or the State of Nevada. The resources of the country are carefully studied and written up by able correspondents, and the GAZETTE has done as much as all the other papers combined in this respect.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE
contains all the reading matter of the Daily, without its advertisements. It is an eight-page paper, with good, plain letters and clean, white paper. It has increased in an extraordinary manner in the last six months, and is now growing rapidly. Its interesting matter, crisp editorials and late news make its popularity. By availing themselves of our club rates, the WEEKLY GAZETTE costs only half a dollar a year. It is given with the Bulletin, Chronicle, Examiner or Record-Union, which cost alone two dollars and fifty cents; for three dollars; with Harper's publications and the Argonaut for four dollars and fifty cents a year, and with other papers in proportion. Send for sample copies.
